This Should Be a Good Battle, Another good fight to-night will be the fifteen round battle between Billy Glover, the promising lightweight, of Boston, and Tommy Quill, of Brockton, Mass., who has beaten "Young Erne", and other good fight.

Before the bitterest in the history of the griddron sport in the East.

While Yale and Princeton are the only teams of the Big Five that have not been scored upon this season, there may be a different story to tell before the week's end. Beginning on Saturday all the big transm will get their first real contests, and it will be interesting to note how they will come out, for the time is drawing near when they will have their own baftles for the championship.

Harvard and Yale will journey away beaten "Young Erne", and other good fighters this year. They will meet before the Rhode Island A. C., of Thornton, R. I. They fought a draw over a year ago, and as they have improved since that contest they ought to put up a harder battle this time.
